LOSE LIVES N BIRMINGHAM FIRE

rding House Destroyed with Horrible Results.

ILL SEARCHING FOR VICTIMS

possible to Identify Any of the odies, as They Are Burned Beyond Recognition—Believed to Have Been of Incendiary Origin.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 20.—Ten en were burned to death, two seriously and perhaps fatally injured and a third slightly hurt, by jumping from the second story as the result of a fire which destroyed the boarding house of Mrs. E. E. Watley, at 1131 Third avenue, between 2 and 3 o'clock Friday morning.

The dead:

W. N. Nichols, street car conductor.

D. B. Neal, street car conductor.

W. B. Taylor, street car motorman.

G. C. Preston, conductor.

Edward Caldwell, motorman.

E. B. Henshaw, conductor.

Gordon D. Burns, motorman.

William T. Hall, conductor.

W. B. Livingston, rolling mill man.

Ollie H. Hines, employe of Birmingham Paint and Glass company.

The injured:

C. E. Hentch, street car conductor.

G. W. Troutman, motorman.

C. E. Keith, street railway employe.

There were 21 boarders in the house, almost all of whom were street railway employes.

In addition there were three other persons, Mrs. Watley and her two sons. All have been accounted for.

All the dead and injured occupied rooms on the second story of the house.

The flames enveloped the entire building when the fire was discovered, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the persons on the lower floor made their escape. They saved nothing, and every piece of furniture in the house was burned.

The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. Burglars have been detected on the premises twice within the last two months, and Mrs. Watley thinks the house was burglarized Friday morning and then set on fire.

Thieves were discovered at work during the progress of the flames, and the police were called to keep guard.

The dead were burned beyond recognition.

The ten charred bodies are at the morgue, where it is impossible to tell one from the other. The names given are those of the missing, the number corresponding with the number of corpses found.

When the fire department reached the scene of the holocaust the body of a man was seen hanging from a second story window. A ladder was quickly raised and the form taken down. The man was dead and burned beyond recognition. He had made a desperate effort to escape but failed.

Another body was found in bed, indications being that the man had been suffocated in his sleep and then burned to a crisp.

A body in an attitude of prayer was discovered in the corner of one of the rooms. The man's hands were uplifted and he was on his knees.

Several corpses were found on the stairway and near windows, showing that those victims had sought to flee from the burning structure, but were overpowered and died.

Other corpses had dropped to the ground floor when portions of the second floor fell in.

It was after daylight before the ten bodies had been found and removed. Later a second search of the ruins was made, but no additional corpses were found, and as no others are missing, it is believed that ten deaths make up the total fatalities of the fire.

Hentch and Troutman, who jumped from the second floor, are in a very serious condition and are expected to die.

W. B. Taylor, one of the dead men, was from Chattanooga, and Ollie Hines, another, was from Knoxville.

INDIANS KILL COWBOYS.

Outbreak of Ute Indians Cause Great Excitement.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Omaha, Neb., says an outbreak of the Ute Indians, who have been causing much trouble and worry in Wyoming all this summer, occurred near Gillette, Wyo., Wednesday night. In a battle between cowboys and Indians two of the former were killed and a number of the Indians are supposed to have been injured. The battle occurred when the Indians attempted to raid a cattle camp and run off a lot of stock. The cowboys were in charge of the camp and resisted. The fight then took place. The Indians secured the cattle and killing a number of steers, took the meat home to their camps. This news reached Omaha Thursday night in private dispatches, and there is much excitement in army circles, as soldiers are expected to be started to Gillette very shortly.

Left Him to Waves' Mercy.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 20.—The tug Admiral Dewey has arrived here with the barge Grace Deering, found adrift off Mayport Wednesday. Captain Muirhead of the Grace Deering reports that on Oct. 14, 15 and 16 he experienced rough weather while being towed by the Mexican steamer El Presidente. Oct. 16, at 5:15 p. m., in latitude 31, longitude 80.14 west, while headed southwest, the hawser parted. He kept the barge dead before the wind. The steamer dropped behind, but never spoke to him or attempted to offer assistance. The last seen of the steamer was at 11 o'clock that night, continuing on its course. The crew had a hard time with heavy seas, which swept over the decks.

Speaker Cannon Arrested.

New York, Oct. 20.—A dispatch to the World from Philadelphia says that Speaker Cannon and Congressman McCreary made a whirling automobile tour of Philadelphia Thursday night. All went well until after a 9-mile trip to Germantown had been made in 15 minutes. The speaker's car had barely stopped when a policeman, who had been in pursuit, arrived. "You are all arrested," said the officer, but Mr. Cannon was hurried into the hall and some one explained to the policeman who it was. The officer contented himself with taking the number of the car and notifying the chauffeur that he was under arrest and would have to appear before a magistrate in the morning.

Delighted With Fall.

New York, Oct. 20.—"That fall of 7 stories was the finest experience that I ever had," was the declaration made to physicians of Bellevue hospital by William Bushell, 19 years old, after he fell down the airshaft from the seventh floor of the Hotel Seville. Bushell, who is a plumber's assistant, received a slight bruise on his heel and walked to Bellevue hospital to have it treated. "I enjoyed the fall very much," said Bushell, to Dr. Lewis. "When I first felt myself going it frightened me, but then came a feeling of delight. I was drunk with exquisite pleasure. I received a shock when I struck the concrete flooring in the basement, but that was nothing serious."

Drumhead Courtmartial.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—Premier Stolypin has sent a circular to the provincial governors instructing them to announce to the inhabitants of their districts that all conscripts refusing to serve with the colors will be tried by drumhead courtmartial.

He Swallowed Chloral.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 20.—George B. Royce of Rutland, Vt., committed suicide in his room in a hotel by swallowing a quantity of chloral. He was 39 years of age, and was in the railroad contracting business. No cause is known for the deed.

WEEP OVER BIER OF SAM JONES

Funeral Services Were Held In Tabernacle.

TRIBUTES PAID TO HIS MEMORY

Bishop Galloway, Judge Akin and Others Made Addresses—The Remains Were Brought to Atlanta on Friday.

Cartersville, Ga., Oct. 20.—Living, the Rev. Sam P. Jones was loved with a tenderness that one sees but once in a life time. Wrapped in the cold arms of death, this love was given an expression which was confined to no class or condition, no age, color or sex.

Cartersville, where Sam Jones was best known, by reason of the fact that it was his home, seemed paralyzed by paroxysms of grief which followed one another in quick succession whenever the name of the dead evangelist was mentioned or when some familiar object reminiscent of his was seen.

Even nature was in accord with the grief of the city. The sky was overcast with banks of dull, threatening clouds, which seemed at any moment ready to turn loose the full flood of their sorrow. Cartersville had the silence of the sepulchre during the entire day. Business was practically suspended from early morning and in the afternoon, during the hours consumed by the memorial services, every store in the city was closed. Religions for the once were as one. The Methodist expressed no more sorrow than the humble Greek, a stranger in a strange land. Few spoke save in hushed, whispered tones. It seems that the shock of death had temporarily benumbed the faculties of expression. Knots of people congregated at each corner, and Caucasian and negro freely fraternized, their common grief being a bond which brought all together and for the time obliterated all barriers.

Mentally heroic, magnetic to a degree which drew all men to him, physically and morally a man militant and unafraid, Sam P. Jones was known to thousands in all parts of this country.

But one must of necessity have lived close to the man to understand and be in most perfect sympathy with him. There was not a man, woman or child in Cartersville who did not know Sam P. Jones. By the same token all loved him.

Brilliantly endowed, possessed of many and divers talents, Sam Jones was withal one of the least complex of men—one of the most easily approached and understood once you knew him. He never threw around him that atmosphere of mystery and reserve affected by many men of genius. His plainness, his approachability was his pride. He never posed. He could not. He was simply Sam Jones.

Like many direct, straightforward men, the personality of Sam Jones defied analysis.

A pall seemed to have fallen over Cartersville. Early in the morning streams of people from all directions wended their way to the Jones residence. The face of each was apathetic. Each seemed to be struggling to rid himself of the certainty that Sam Jones was dead. Few were able to grasp the full significance of the news which had been flashed over the wires. Sadly they gazed on the placid features of their friend, but still a full realization did not come. The news had been too sudden, too unexpected. Only the day before the city of Cartersville had been planning for a reception to the home-coming evangelist. Cartersville was only too glad to lend Sam Jones to the outside world in the cause of Christianity, but his frequent trips to other cities and states always left a void, and his home-comings were always the occasions for rejoicing. Cartersville was not the same place with Sam Jones absent. And now he had returned, his matchless voice hushed in death. No more would he greet them. No more would his hearty handgrasp be felt.

And yet, hundreds felt he was not dead; that though the icy hand of the grim Reaper had touched his brow, he lived and forever would live. Gone he might be, but his life had been such that death could not rob him.

It had been so fraught with splendid achievement that he was not as other mortals.

Even at the tabernacle, when the black casket was placed in front of the platform, this thought seemed apparent.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the cortege left the Jones residence and slowly wended its way to the tabernacle which Mr. Jones had built. The services were not to begin for half an hour, but the vast auditorium was crowded with fully 6,000 persons. Many were compelled to stand.

On the right hand side were the white and negro school children of Cartersville. On the left were members of secret and fraternal orders. Hundreds of negroes were in the rear. The auditorium presented a striking contrast with the appearance of a few days before when it had been lavishly decorated for the reception planned for Dr. Len G. Broughton of Atlanta, on his return from Europe. Somber black and white draped the pillars and trusses where once gay flags floated in anticipation of a happy event.

On the platform were prominent ministers and laymen from all parts of the state.

The honorary pallbearers were: Revs. George Duvall, John E. Barnard, W. A. Cleveland, Ford McRae, C. A. Allday, Seaborn.

The honorary escort included delegations from the local Masonic and Knights of Pythias lodges, and preceded the hearse.

The active pallbearers were: John S. Leake, L. S. Munford, W. H. Howard, John H. Wikle, James W. Knight, J. W. Vaughan, Dr. R. J. Trippe, Paul Gilreath, Robert Milam and J. C. Wafford.

The program was simple, just as Mr. Jones would have had it. It consisted of singing homely songs dear to the heart of Mr. Jones, the reading of brief passages from the Psalms and addresses by Rev. Mr. Stuart, for years a co-worker of Mr. Jones; Judge Aiken, his fellow townsman, who spoke of him as a citizen, and Bishop Galloway of Mississippi.

Mr. Stuart related many touching incidents of the life and work of Sam Jones. The night before he died, said Mr. Stuart, Mr. Jones had met a sick and friendless man on the train. He cared for him tenderly and assured the man he would be with him in the morning and pay his fare to the end of his destination, and, if necessary, accompany him home. Thus with death only a few hours off, one of his last acts was for sick and suffering humanity.

So deeply did Mr. Stuart feel that at times his voice was choked with sobs. He spoke of Mr. Jones as the greatest evangelist of all time; but his distinction did not end there. He was one of the most thoroughly honest men who ever lived and his word was as good as his bond. During 15 years of constant association, Mr. Stuart said he had never had a single disagreement. Their relations were always of the most pleasant, and a cross or an unkind word had never passed.

Judge J. Warren Akin spoke of Sam Jones, the citizen. He had known him for many years and had loved him like a brother. He was the same at home as he was abroad. He had his critics and people who did not agree with him, but it was a notable fact that during all the years not a word had even been breathed against his motives or his integrity. This, he thought, one of the striking things about the man, for people are ever ready to gossip about men in the public eye.

Bishop Galloway's address was the feature of the service. It was characterized by a purity of diction, a sympathy and a charm of expression which made it one of the most notable pulpit utterances ever delivered in the south.

A touching incident took place while the choir was softly singing, "In the Good Old-Fashioned Way." An aged negro woman, who had known Mr. Jones since boyhood, and who had been the recipient of many kindnesses at his hand, gave way to a religious ecstacy and her cries could be heard all over the auditorium. No effort was made to stop her. Mr. Jones ever said he liked to see religious zeal outwardly expressed.

After the services, the body was removed to the residence, from whence it was brought to Atlanta to lie in state in the rotunda of the capitol. The funeral party reached Atlanta about 12 o'clock Friday.

After lying in state through Friday the body will be carried to Westview cemetery and placed in a receiving vault.

BUYERS WILL BE OUT.

May Not Be Enabled to Furnish Spinners Without a Loss.

Information has been received in this city from a supposedly reliable source that the firm of M. L. Burnett & Co., Live Oak, a few days recently made a consignment of a large quantity of Sea Island cotton f. o. b. Live Oak, 24 cents, which found a ready market in Savannah at 24½ and 25 cents.

If this be true, it will prove a heavy blow to several prominent buyers throughout the Sea Island cotton belt who contracted early in the season to furnish the spinners of the fleecy staple on round numbers at 20 cents.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

(By Sun's Special Reporter.)

The enrollment is steadily increasing. There is not a vacant desk nor a foot of vacant floor space in either the fourth, seventh, eighth or tenth grade rooms.

Mr. Higdon, superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday school, conducted chapel exercises for us Monday morning. His visit was greatly appreciated and enjoyed.

Next week is examination week, and the "probationers" are getting anxious. The principal has announced that all who were graded conditionally must make a passing grade this month or step down to the grade below.

Wednesday was a rainy day, and in order to prevent the children having to go home through the rain, all recesses were omitted and a continuous session was held, so as to make up full time and dismiss at 1:15 p. m. It was a hungry, but good-natured crowd that filed out at 1:15. One of the ninth grade boys was heard to remark that he guessed his stomach thought his throat had been cut. An eleventh grade girl said she did not think it was fair, as all had to go hungry except the zoology class, which had lots of worms and caterpillars, and she'd bet they ate a lot of them on the sly.

The contest for the banner the first month will be close. The eighth, sixth, fifth and third grades are among the leading contestants for it. The lucky grade will have to put on its best behavior if it holds it more than a month.

Little Lillian Colclough, of the first grade, sang for us at chapel exercises Friday. She was compelled to answer to an encore. Her singing was very sweet and was greatly enjoyed, both by teachers and pupils. The janitress remarked to Lillian's teacher, as the children filed out to their rooms, "Dat sho' wus sweet singin.' Miss Mabel. Dis hyer town orto be proud dat lil' chile."

There was not a single case of tardiness Friday.

Mrs. Dorsey was a welcome visitor to the first grade room Friday morning.

The general order and spirit of the school is fine and improving every day.

Will somebody tell us why our parents don't come to see us?

EMERSON BUYS PROPERTY.

Fine Farm and Effects of W. G. Richardson Has Been Sold.

A. H. Emerson of Tacoma has come into possession of some new and valuable property, the farm of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Richardson having been purchased by him.

This farm is small, but a good one, being one of the most fertile in the Tacoma section. It is known as the Bruce place, and when a trucker could not grow lettuce and cucumbers and other things on that land, he was put down as a "fellow who couldn't grow anything anywhere."

Sixteen acres of this farm is cleared and under good fence. The remainder is timber land, but can be cleared at the pleasure of the owner.

Mr. Emerson's friends are congratulating him upon the purchase of this valuable tract.

INDIGESTION A CRIME.

Don't You Want a Keen Appetite and Perfect Health Once More?

Don't you want keen appetite, vigorous digestion, strong heart action, pure blood, nerves of steel, and natural strength and health restored to you once more?

If you continue to suffer with the ills of indigestion, such as headaches, backaches, sleeplessness, nausea and distress after eating, specks before the eyes, despondency and nervousness, now that you have been told of the good Mi-o-na stomach tablets will do you, then your indigestion is an absolute crime.

Mi-o-na will strengthen all the organs of digestion, so that you will get from your food the nourishment that is needed to support the vital forces and strengthen the nerve powers; the flagging spirits of mind and body will be rejuvenated; hope, courage and strength will be restored.

The fact that Mi-o-na is sold under an absolute guarantee by J. W. McCollum & Co. to strengthen the digestive system and restore health, or they will refund the money, proves most clearly and strongly the great merit of this remedy.

Ask them to show you the guarantee they give with every 50-cent box of Mi-o-na. This will show their faith in the remedy, and Mi-o-na itself will soon demonstrate its health-giving qualities.

To the Ladies of Gainesville.

Had you forgotten about that Lady Baltimore Tea the ladies of the Library Association are going to give at the Public Library building next Thursday? If so, this is to remind you of it, and to recall to your recollection that for a very small sum each visitor will get a cup of tea, a piece of Lady Baltimore cake and the receipt for making it. In the mean time, have you read the book? If you haven't, you have a treat in store. Time 3 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 25

A Most Worthy Article.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs. We owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Pleasant Affair.

Misses Mary and Nellie DaCosta entertained on Friday evening a number of their young friends in an informal but delightful manner. The evening was passed in a manner appropriate to the occasion, the program comprising music, etc., including the game, "Mrs. Wiggs in the Cabbage Patch."

Delicious refreshments were served, and altogether the Misses DaCosta proved themselves most hospitable entertainers.

Beef Cattle For Sale.

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. Trust him.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our preparations.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

The fact that S. S. S. is a purely vegetable preparation, containing not the slightest trace of mineral in any form, has been one of the strong points in its favor during its forty years of existence. It is recognized everywhere not only as the best of all blood purifiers, but the one medicine that can be taken with absolute safety by the youngest child or the oldest member of the family. Next in importance to removing the cause of a disease is the condition in which the system is left after a course of medical treatment. Medicines containing mercury, potash or other strong mineral ingredients often do permanent injury by eating out the delicate lining of tissues of the stomach, producing chronic dyspepsia, unfavorably affecting the bowels and so damaging the system that even if the original cause of the disease has been removed, it is left in such a deranged and weakened condition that the health is permanently impaired. S. S. S. enjoys the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that does not contain a mineral property in some form. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks it is absolutely harmless to any part of the system, and while curing disease adds strength and health to every part of the body. S. S. S. removes all poisons, freshens and purifies the blood and gives better and more lasting results than any other blood medicine. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and all troubles due to an impure or poisoned blood supply. Besides being the King of blood purifiers S. S. S. is the best and most invigorating of all tonics.

The meetings will no doubt be well ttended, as each of the distinguished rio are excellent orators.

HIGH SPRINGS HAPPENINGS.

Minister of the Gospel Loses Heavily By Fire—Other Notes of Interest.

High Springs, Oct. 20—The house occupied by the Rev. G. E. Thompson, and belonging to L. C. Gracy, was burned this week, and the contents almost an entire loss, as the fire had progressed extensively before it was discovered. Mr. Thompson was away holding a meeting in Fort White. He sustained a great loss in the destruction of his theological library, which contained many valuable works.

The New Century Club was reorganized this week, and the study for the year selected. The students' reference work will furnish topics for study.

Mrs. W. T. Knight of Savannah has returned to her home, after a pleasant visit to relatives in High Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walworth of Birmingham, Ala., who have been on a business and social visit to High Springs, returned this week. They were entertained while here by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Summers.

Wm. Futch made a business trip to St. Petersburg this week.

Mrs. E. K. Anderson has returned from her summer's outing, much to the gratification of her friends.

Mrs. Modes Mathers of Micanopy has moved to High Springs, and will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Summers.

The school, under the management of Miss M. A. Mann, principal, is progressing finely with a good attendance and full corps of teachers.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

It is high time that the oft repeated claim that—"chronic baldness can be cured" be filed away with the old announcement that the moon is made of green cheese. The claim is untrue, and aside from this it induces many people to ignore the chances they have to prevent baldness.

The greatest stride toward the ultimate elimination of baldness was the discovery by Prof. Unna, of Hamburg, Germany (ask your doctor about him), that most hair loss is due to an invisible growth, of vegetable character, in the scalp—literally a "dandruff germ," producing a highly contagious disease. The greatest stride toward the prevention of baldness was the recent discovery of a prophylactic fluid called NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE, which, if intelligently used—will destroy the dandruff germ and prevent baldness.

Herpicide is the original dandruff germ destroyer and its extraordinary success—for dandruff and falling hair, also dull, brittle and lustreless hair—has brought out many imitations. Even the old line hair "growers" and hair "tonics" now claim to kill the dandruff germ. Quite a tribute to Herpicide, isn't it? An exquisite hair dressing. Stops itching of the scalp almost instantly. Don't wait; try it now.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Young Waldo Lad Had Misfortune to Break His Arm While at Play.

Walter Kincade had the misfortune to break his arm while playing with his little companions yesterday afternoon. They were playing "pop the whip" and Walter being the last one on the row, his hold broke and caused him a hard fall, and the fall was so sudden, and the others falling on him, resulted in a broken arm and a great deal of suffering. This is a play that the children should abandon, as they often get hurt.—Waldo News, 19th.

THE INCOME TAX.

A recent cable from St. Petersburg announces that the Russian government is about to adopt the income tax as the logical method of equalizing taxation and making more certain and stable the revenues of the empire. It is also the belief of the Russian council of state that this form of taxation will go far toward allaying the social unrest and revolutionary tendencies of the Russian masses.

There is reason in the latter supposition and justice in the income tax program of the Russian ministry. The income tax, says The Atlanta Constitution, is the most logical and equitable form of taxation ever devised by the genius of political economy. In fact, it is the only system of taxation that compels every subject or citizen to bear his or her fair proportionate share of the burden of maintaining government.

The income tax is no innovation in civilized and progressive government, and it is little short of amusing to observe the air of holy horror that some of our Republican friends assume when they regard this fundamental plank of Democracy's platform.

There is ample precedent for it as a war-time revenue expedient, and if it is just and good for raising war time revenues, it is just and good for raising the ordinary revenues of government in time of peace, in lieu of more unequal and unjust methods of taxation. Great Britain, for all its hollow forms of monarchy—the most democratic and constitutional government on the face of the earth—has found the income tax the nearest perfect system of raising revenue by taxation extant, and even the rich subjects of King Edward have been educated into believing that it is the only right system of taxation. They bear their share of the burden of government—no more, no less. The poorer and more honest citizen is not mulcted to make up a deficit caused by millionaires swearing off their taxes and deceiving the assessors.

It would seem, from past experience in the premises, that the constitutionality of the income tax in the United States is largely dependent upon the personnel of the United States Supreme Court. It was only declared to be unconstitutional by one vote, and after that vote had been changed. The constitutionality of this righteous form and principle of taxation ought not to be an open question at all, but if it is a question, the States will be only too glad of the voting opportunity to make it constitutional.

The Democratic party will do well to continue to hew to this line closely. The American people are tired of tax-dodging. They demand the income tax, and some day they are going to have it.

Surely the great republic ought to be as civilized and progressive as Russia in this regard.

It is more fun to see a man read a puff on himself in a newspaper than to see a fat man slip on a banana peel. The narrow minded man reads it over seven or eight times, and then goes around to appropriate what copies he can. The kind hearted man goes around to the office and pays what he owes. The successful business man who advertises regularly and makes money by it, immediately starts out to find the editor and the two walk silently down the street and the business man takes sugar in his and they both eat a clove or two and life is sweeter and peace settles down on their hearts for moments. Such is the experience of a mustard seed that falls on different ground.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

Food for Thought.

A great many fires are caused by friction between a building and an insurance policy.

A land without home government is incapable of self-government. To expect that from such a people is the wildest dream.

The difference between the stupid ox and the man is the grey matter in their pates. It is the distance between brains and brains. A penny-weight of the one is worth a pound of the other.

A blind phrenologist might announce some startling discoveries were he feeling the knots on a pumpkin. Some men make me think so much of a thing like that and I wonder if its possible.

Mark Twain never wrote the word "metropolis," but always used "city." He said he got just as much money for the short word, conveyed the same meaning, and saved a lot of time. After all, wealth is the sum-total of our margins.

In this great land of ours the home is the granite rock of our civilization. The happy fireside is the bulwark of all our freedom. He who would wreck it must be put out of commission. Treat him in the same way you would a dog with the rabies.

Broadly speaking, freedom is not liberty, nor will liberty ever be licensed in the full sense of the word. I am not at liberty to do as I please. When my thought and act interferes with the rights and privileges of another I am no longer free. Freedom is always the expressed will of the majority.

There never was a heart strong enough to suffer alone. Love creates its own shroud if left to solitary gloom. Its strongest evidence is when it instinctively shares the sorrow of its very own. To refuse is to deny its very existence. Like the eidelweis it takes on strength and beauty when nursed by the mountain storms.

STORY OF INDIAN WAR.

ond Edition of A. P. Canova's Book Now Being Issued.

e have received a letter from our friend, Andrew P. Canova, for- y of this city but now of St. rsburg, in which he states that he w having published a second edi- of his famous book which took so in the early 80's, the title of which Life and Adventures in South Flor-

r. Canova, the author, is one of ida's pioneer citizens, and is the ran of two wars, the Seminole In- War, and the Civil War between States. He is a veteran of whom people may well feel proud to or.

ut Mr. Canova is writing in this vol- e of his experience as a soldier in Everglades, in the Seminole War, hich he pictures with realistic beauty d in a manner which must interest ot only the older, but the younger ement of our country who are fa- iliar with history. In this work he ls of his actual experiences as a sol- er, and many are the interesting and rilling experiences which he was mpelled to confront during this try- campaign, where the white man d the red man faced each other for upremacy of possession.

Mr. Canova first published his book in 1888, when he was living in Palatka. The introductory was by Hon. Robert W. Davis, and was a masterly work. The story as told by Mr. Canova was written from the pen of James Perkins, being dictated by the author from his actual personal experience. It is a work which was appreciated, and in a few short months the entire publication of several thousand copies were exhausted.

This famous work has been out of print for several years, but the demand has been so constant and so great upon the author that he has decided to reproduce the same, and the second edition will be out about the middle of November.

Mr. Canova is a native of St. Johns county. He is well known here, where he was a citizen for several years.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the great discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by all druggists.

Discount Rate Raised.

London, Oct. 20.—The Bank of England raised its discount rate of 6 per cent Friday morning. Changes in the discount rate of the bank on any day except Thursday have been few and far between, and not since Nov. 7, 1890, just before the Baring failure, has the rate been put to 6 per cent. The relapse in American exchange, indicating a renewal of the demands for gold, and the probability of large withdrawals of the metal for Egypt seemed to have contributed to the action taken by the Bank of England.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

STANDARD OIL GUILTY

On Charge of Conspiracy Against Trade In Ohio.

Findlay, O., Oct. 20.—After deliberating 32 hours, the jury in the case of the State of Ohio against the Standard Oil company of Ohio returned a verdict of guilty on the charge of conspiracy against trade in violation of the Valentine anti-trust law. The verdict was rendered about 4:35 o'clock Friday morning, the jury having announced its readiness to report exactly at 4 o'clock.

The court and attorneys arrived in half an hour, when the verdict was rendered. When the jury came in and had taken its place in the jury box Judge Banker said:

"Gentlemen, have you agreed upon a verdict?"

"Your honor, we have," responded Foreman Bailes.

"What is that verdict?"

The foreman sent to the court a typewritten form, which the court read:

"We, the jury in this case, find the defendant guilty in the form and manner in which the defendant stands charged in the information. Bailes, foreman."

As the jury was leaving the room, Mr. Troupe stepped up to the court and said he wished to make the motion for a new trial of the case. Judge Banker assured him that all such motions would be entertained as a matter of course.

The court at once adjourned, and five minutes after the verdict had been rendered the building was deserted.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures lagrippe, gives wonderful relief in asthma and hay fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption. coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottle free.

Want New Police Chief.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—The grand jury in its report filed to Judge Graham finds the police department of this city has been lacking in discipline, believes that the enforced vacation of a third of the force has been a factor to series of crimes recently, and recommends that a new chief of police be appointed for the purpose of preservingg and maintaining discipline to the department for the better protection of the city.

Insurance Agents Will Meet.

New York, Oct. 20.—Life insurance agents from all over this country and Canada will gather in St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 23, 24 and 25 to attend the seventeenth annual convention of the National Association of Life Underwriters. This association is made up of over 50 local associations of agents and solicitors in the principal cities of the two countries. Prominent public men will deliver addresses.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to, I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Railroad Company Heavily Fined.

New York, Oct. 20.—Judge Holt, in the United States circuit court Friday, imposed a fine of $108,000 on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company, for granting rebates to Lowell M. Palmer, who has charge of transportation for the American Sugar Refining company. There were six counts and a fine of $17,000 was imposed in each. Frederick L. Pomeroy, assistant traffic manager of the New York Central, was fined $1,000 on each count.

Lest We

LUABLE LAND NOW IN CONTEST

f of the Town of Wannee Is Before U. S. Land Office.

ARPER WANTS TO BE BOSS

aniel H. Thomas Secures a Home-ead and Claims That He Resided On Same in Compliance With Law, ut Harper is Trying to Eject Him.

n Friday there was an interesting e in the United States land office, ch was heard before Register Rob-ns and Receiver Chubb.

This case, from the evidence, seems be a rather peculiar one, as it ap-ars that efforts have been made to ispossess a homesteader who had ap-rently and by law complied with all quirements.

The complainant in the case was M. Harper, who alleged that the home-der, Nathan H. Thomas, who was homesteader, had not complied with the requirements of the law of a home-ead entry, inasmuch as he had not ilded upon the premises entered for mestead, or had not cultivated or "worked" same according to law.

In his testimony the defendant ated that he had had constructed ree houses upon the premises; that e had a man regularly employed to main there and take care of the ace, and that himself and family had de their residence on the premises ch six months, as required by law.

The tract or homestead is located in the town of Wannee, in the West End, and is destined to become some day a luable tract, as Wannee is a growing wn, and may become some day the tropolis of the West End, and it s the advantages of railroad facili-es, and is in the heart of a fine agri-ultural and timber and naval stores untry. The tract comprises eighty res.

The complainant is represented by T. Ellis, while Attorneys Thrasher d Hampton are looking after the in-erests of Mr. Thomas.

The evidence was not finished, and the case was postponed to a future date.

Letter to Phifer & Morris.

Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sirs: It is a great thing for a merchant to have the exclusive sale (in his region, of course) of anything wanted by everybody.

There are two ways to treat such goods. One is: put the price up and make big profit. The other way is: be fair and make more.

Devoe is the paint that takes least gallons and costs least money a house, a job, a year, a lifetime—no matter how you reckon your costs, except by the gallon—Devoe is the best caretaker and costs least money.

Don't forget that the principal part of the cost of paint is putting it on. Less gallons, less cost. Don't forget that another principal part of economy is long wear; less gallons, less cost and long wear.

It is a great thing to have the exclusive sale of popular goods, of goods that make friends, of goods that enrich both buyer and seller. Devoe is perhaps only ten per cent better than one or two others; but ten is a plenty—it's 200 or 300 better than many.

There's many a merchant who hasn't found-out his goods. It doesn't take a man long to find-out that Devoe is the least-money paint and why, no matter which side he is on. Yours truly,

CHEAPEST STORE ON EARTH

HOISERY TALK.

The season has now come when it is necessary for the whole family to wear Shoes, and of course you can't wear Shoes without Stockings, and usually the Stocking bill is more than the Shoe bill. This will not be the case if you buy a standard brand of goods.

We have just received a large shipment of the celebrated BLACK CAT HOISERY for Men, Women and Children, and this brand is too well known to need much talking about. The price commences at 10c and runs up. The Boys' Hose at 15 and 25c wear almost like leather. See the line and try a pair next time you buy.

The Radcliffe Shoe for Ladies'—both button and lace—at $2.50 per pair are the best that money can buy.

We are now showing many new things in Fall and Winter Goods. It will pay you handsomely to do your trading with us, no matter what you need.
